

BORDER COUNTY NOTES.

CARROLL

James Goodbar of Smith township had a garter snake a few days ago.

Mrs. D. A. Mansur of Norborne is dead. She leaves a husband but no children.

The grocery store of B. F. Harper at Carrollton was closed last week by Sheriff Sinton Lewis under an attachment.

E. Hickey of Bosworth was arrested last week on the dual charges of selling liquor to minors and selling without license.

Two new lawyers were hatched out the recent term of the Carroll county circuit court. Their names are Torrence L. Crane and Jasper E. Allen.

M. Eller, a tonsorial artist of Witt, still wants your whiskers, but will probably prefer keeping them himself since the weather has turned cold.

Father Bukes, pastor of the Catholic church at Norborne for several years, has moved to this county and been installed as rector of the Catholic church in Chariton township.

The DeWitt Herald has entered in the 10th year of its useful existence. The Herald is a good paper, deserves the most liberal patronage of the people of DeWitt and vicinity.

A man advertised in the DeWitt Herald for a wife, and is now being edged on every hand by the fair folk in that community who are tired of sleeping by themselves. Guess he wants somebody to keep him warm this winter.

The Leader says that a Norborne sweet and bright eyed, responded to her mother's query as to what little daughter was most thankful today, replied: "Cause there's no school an' it's only a month since Santa Claus 'ill cum."

This is the way the DeWitt Herald is to Thanksgiving day in that age this year: There were more eyes went down the throats of DeWitt citizens than there were thanks up to God yesterday. There were no services of any kind at the churches and about the only way one could distinguish it was Thanksgiving to watch some of our inhabitants sing their overloaded bellies.

MARRIAGES.

Harry Parker and Miss Baumgardner of Rockford township.

Howard Moran of Carrollton and Sarah Finley of White Rock.

HOWARD.

Rev. Edgar Dillard has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church at New Franklin.

John Burnett, a young man living at Sebree, died of typhoid fever the inst., aged 30 years.

There were eleven accessions to the Baptist church during the recent protracted meeting conducted at New Franklin by Rev. Edgar Dillard.

P. Mason, one of the editors of the Democrat-Leader, and wife, a brand new son at their house, now Harry can tell you all about the price of paregoric.

The coroner's jury decided that Miller, the man who was found on the farm of B. E. Nance, near Franklin, came to his death from effects of intoxicating drink.

The game of football, played at the Thanksgiving day between the local college and Missouri Valley teams, resulted in a victory for Centralites by a score of 34 to 0.

An unsuccessful attempt was made by incendiary to burn the residence of Chas. Turner, col., at Fayetteville, a few nights ago. Some kindling was placed under the house, coal piled up on it and then set on fire. Fortunately the fire was discovered in time, and was soon extinguished.

The November term of the Howard county circuit court convened at Fayetteville last Monday. Judge John A. Hockaday presiding. Among the civil cases on the docket are those of J. E. Colson vs. H. C. Sasse and Edward Thacker vs. H. C. Sasse, the plaintiffs having brought suit against defendant for damages for defamation of character.

Brookfield society enjoyed an old-fashioned corn-shucking last Monday night.

Judge W. T. Elston of Baker township is very low, having been stricken with paralysis last week.

Mrs. Emma H. Hartman, aged 33 years, died at her home in Brookfield last Tuesday.

The Gazette thinks Brookfield is big enough to be entitled to free delivery. We hope she will get it.

A farmer, near Bucklin, brought to that town last week a load of 50 bushels of big red apples, which he soon sold.

Emil Olson of Linneus had one of his feet broken and was otherwise badly bruised last Tuesday by his horse falling on him.

The "mum" show given by the ladies of Grace M. E. church at Brookfield last Friday netted about $100. A cake-walk wound up the entertainment.

Mrs. L. A. Stunkel of Bucklin was badly burned about the lower limbs last Tuesday by her clothing catching fire while she was sweeping. She will recover.

A crowd of five or six drunken toughs at Marceline attacked the night policeman at that place last Friday night, and after disarming him they beat him up pretty badly. They will be prosecuted.

Porter Rogers, Marceline's "bad man," thought he was the whole thing in that city last Thursday, but after he had been thrown out of a restaurant and had the sidewalk wiped up with him by the proprietor, he yelled "enough," and concluded there were others.

MARRIAGES.

Elmer Sims and Miss Annie Sweeney of Brookfield.

R. F. Hayes and Miss Belle Leffler of Brookfield.

Chillicothe water-works and badly damaged the engines. The loss will exceed $2,000.

Ed. Israel and Frank Hawkins, two young men living near Chillicothe, went to a dance last Saturday night in the country, and in their recklessness drove their horses and buggy into Grand river. One of the horses was drowned, but besides a good ducking the young men did not suffer to any great extent.

MARRIAGES.

John E. Boucher and Miss Allie Stanton of Chillicothe.

Wm. C. McClasky and Miss Jessie Crane of Livingston county.

Dr. J. H. Winter of Chillicothe and Miss Allie Gates of Fort Dodge, Iowa.

D. F. Roulette of Dawn and Miss Carrie E. Peek of Blue Mound township.

MACON.

The Modern Woodmen of America have organized a lodge at Redman.

The November term of the Macon county circuit court began at LaPlata last Monday.

Macon's "400" have commenced the season with a rush, and the society editors of the Macon papers are kept on the "go" all of the time.

The Callao Journal says there was a fall of 50 degrees in the mercury at that place last Monday week. Bring in that "there" word, please.

Macon county has a prospective Republican candidate for governor in 1900 in the person of Dr. E. B. Clements, a most popular young Republican of that county.

Pearl Morrow and Jack Stacy of Callao were arrested last week and taken to Jefferson barracks, near St. Louis, where they are wanted for deserting from the Third United States cavalry.

Capt. Trevalin, a globe-trotter, was in Macon last week on his tour around the world. He says when he arrives in New York he will have traveled 98,000 miles. He is due in Dublin, Ireland, April 13th, 1899.

Col. Brees, the Macon millionaire, has in contemplation the building of a modern, fire-proof, 50-room hotel in that city in the near future. Macon is the luckiest town in the state in being the home of Col. Brees.

The Macon Times is giving the county officials of that county a just "raking over" for sending away from home for their county blanks. These by right belong to the newspapers, and any official sending an order away from home for a job he can get at home is guilty of the rankest kind of ingratitude. We hope more papers will take this matter up.

MARRIAGES.

James Lawson and Miss Julia Davis of Bevier.

Warren Burton and Mrs. Jennie Todd of Macon.

J. C. Winders and Miss Maude Gordon of Callao.

Benjamin Thomas and Miss Jennie Davis of Bevier.

A. R. Altman, whose father lives at Moberly, and who was a young man of good character, shot and killed himself at Chicago, November 22nd.

Fred Hinton and son, col., of Huntsville were arrested last Monday on the charge of stealing coal from the Wabash railroad. They were bound over for trial.

The young folks of Clifton Hill enjoyed a "burgout" last Thursday night, and the Banner editor says he hopes they will soon have another, as he surely did get a "square" meal.

The drug store of Dr. N. C. Williams at Clifton Hill caught fire last Tuesday, but was extinguished before doing much damage. The doctor fell from a ladder and sustained some very painful injuries. We are glad to say he is getting along all right.

R. P. Gooding of Levick's Mill had a narrow escape from death at Moberly last Friday. He attempted to drive his team across the railroad track in front of a train. The horses and the front wheels of the wagon got over safely, but the engine struck the hind part. Mr. Gooding was thrown about 20 feet, but was not seriously injured. The wagon was badly wrecked.

Ten car loads of market stock were shipped from Gilliam last Saturday night.

The barn of Geo. Marshall of Slater was destroyed by fire last Wednesday. Small insurance.

Fire did considerable damage to the C. & A. railroad depot at Slater last Sunday morning.

Slater's curfew law says all children under 15 years of age must be at home by nine o'clock p.m.

The Slater calaboose is kept neat and clean. Perhaps it is not a bad place to spend an evening during this cold weather.

Miss Sallie Lynch of Blackburn while in Kansas City last week fell from a street car and broke two bones of her right arm.

The protracted meeting at Blackburn is meeting with much encouragement. The meeting is in charge of Elder Haley of Kansas City.

Beautiful Water.

Beautiful water! see how it weaves a golden gauze for the setting sun, and a silvery tissue for the mid-night moon! Watch it descending in the feathery snow flake, or painting with fairy pencil, flowers and leaves upon the window pane, or covering with a mantle of white wintry world! Look at it as it trickles down the mountain side, like silvery ribands mixing with the heather bloom! Mark it setting on the mountain top, till it seems as if it lifted up its glorious face to kiss the very heavens? Beautiful water!—rolling up the valley in cloud of mists, or weaving the gorgeous rainbow, its warp, the rain drop of the earth; its woof, heaven's bright sunbeam!

Beautiful water! There is no blood stains in its crystal depths, no madness and no murder in its foam! It never broke a mother's heart; it never ruined a reputation; it never sent a poor wretch shrieking to the gallows. No poison bubbles on its brink! Never did pale-faced wife, or starving child, or broken-hearted mother weep into it a bitter tear; never did drunkard howl back from his death-bed a fearful curse upon it! There is no curse there.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE.
She Shudders When She Realizes the Danger and Pain of Child-bearing.

There is so much suffering and danger in store for the young mother, that her happy anticipation soon gives way to a feeling of dread at the thought of the pain which she must undergo. This constant fear so preys upon the mind of many women that it fills them with terror and makes baby's coming a source of the greatest anxiety and dread.

All the suffering and danger of the ordeal can be avoided by the use of "Mother's Friend," which prepares the body for this important event. It relieves "morning sickness," and many other unpleasant conditions which exist during this time. Thousands of women praise "Mother's Friend" for bringing them safely through the most critical period of their lives.

Every woman should send their name and address to the Bradfield Regulator Co., Atlanta, Georgia, and receive free, valuable information on the subject.

PROMPT, PERFECT AND COMPLETE.

I was troubled with catarrh and asthma for over five years, which caused a great deal of suffering, inconvenience and embarrassment, the continual discharge of mucus from the nose and throat was especially disagreeable, and I suffered almost continually with headache, frequently became very hoarse and the expectation and continual desire to clear the throat was very annoying.

Had tried almost every catarrh medicine I heard of, and also took treatment from prominent physicians, and did not find the desired relief until I used Dr. Moore's Aerial Medication, and the relief obtained from it was prompt, perfect and complete. I am willing for my name to be used to anything in regard to this treatment, for I believe it to be all that is claimed for it, and I do not hesitate to recommend it to all who are suffering as I was.

My occupation is Captain and Pilot on the Ohio River, and am well-known from Pittsburgh to New Orleans. JOHN H. DIPPOLD, Baden, Pa.

FREE.

Medicines for three months' treatment—enough to prove that Aerial Medication cures catarrh, catarrh, throat and lung diseases—will be sent free to sufferers. This offer is for a short time only. For symptom form and particulars address at once, J. H. MOORE, M.D., Cincinnati, Ohio.

WHAT DO THE CHILDREN DRINK?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more GRAIN-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their system. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee out costs about 1-4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.
